

RecycleGuard®

Supplemental Underwriting Information

Rubber Processors

This must be completed prior to a quotation being released

What types of rubber do you recycle? Indicate percentage:
% Tires	% Household Goods	% Extrusions
Other:

Are there any revenues generated from the sale of new or used tires?	YES	NO
Do you do any retreading of tires?	YES	NO
Who are the tires sold to?
Are any warranties provided?	YES	NO
If yes, what are the annual revenues?
Please provide details on turnover of material:

If tires are recycled how are they stored:
On end	Overlapped	Inside	Outside
If tires are stored inside what is the maximum height rubber is stored to in feet?
How much of the floor space is used for storage of rubber in square feet?

For inside storage, is the area protected by automatic fire sprinklers?	YES	NO
Are there building features or separations that would contain the spread of heat, smoke, and fire?	YES	NO
If yes, please describe the features (fire walls, block walls, dry wall partition, open floor separation):
If storage is outside, how close are tires stored to the building?
Describe any special fire suppression system for rubber storage or processing:
Is there pre-emergency planning and training completed with the local fire department?	YES	NO

Are rubber products reground?	YES	NO
Are rubber products shredded?	YES	NO
For both of the above, please describe use of product:
If regrinding is performed, describe dust and noise control features:

Describe how and where reground rubber products are stored:

Insured's Signature

Date

Edition Date: 5/31/06