Not just another London broker

Big company resources, family company values

Our 50-year heritage and the reputation we have earned for integrity continues as we bring on the future as Amwins Global Risks.

Scale

Amwins Global Risks is the international operation of Amwins, the largest independent wholesale broker in the world, placing over US $33 billion in annual premium.

Stability

Our wholesale business model and capital structure mean we can focus on our clients' long-term interests.

Expertise

We know our markets and have been speciality broking since 1968. Plus, our team of claims specialists have the expertise you can rely on when a loss occurs.

Independent

We're not tied to an insurer or network. Amwins Global Risks is free to negotiate with any market and we have excellent connections throughout the Lloyd's market and with insurers internationally.

A culture of collaboration

We collaborate, share ideas and communicate – with the aim of being the best at what we do, always.

Teamwork

Amwins Global Risks uses its market connections spanning the globe to secure solutions for challenging and complex risks.
